3. Changes to the Agenda

Vice-President Lawson requested to move Action Item 11.1 to Consent.

Trustee Díaz-Slocum requested that the Discussion Item be moved subsequent to the Consent Items. Please note that there were items that were moved; therefore, the numbering will be off (Items 7, 8, 10, 6, 9).

President McBride requested to move Consent Items 7.2 and 7.5 to Action.

President McBride requested to move the School/Community Report to after Consent.

4. Approval of Agenda

The board approved the agenda as submitted, (Díaz-Slocum, Lawson; 4-0).

5. Oral Communication

Michelle Remond, RCSD Community Liaison, addressed the School Board by outlining her support to the Educational Services and Wellness Department. Ms. Remond added that she is providing additional support to foster youth and chronic absenteeism cases.

Alma Rubio, Garfield Community School parent, addressed the School Board and Superintendent Baker by asking why was the Special Day Classroom at Garfield Community School being closed?

In response to Mrs. Rubio's question, Superintendent Baker replied that there are currently 8 students enrolled in the classroom and the teacher contracted for the position was not ready to teach the classroom. Superintendent Baker reiterated that there was additional space in other programs at other sites where there are qualified teachers available.

In response to Superintendent Baker's comment, Mrs. Rubio asked for clarification as to why students would start the school year in a classroom that eventually would close? Mrs. Rubio expressed her frustration about the unexpected decision to close the classroom at Garfield Community School.

Director of Special Education, Patricia Pelino commented that the Special Education administrators are offering site tours for parents and will be helping families transition to their new school site. Ms. Pelino reiterated that administration understood parents' frustration and apologized for the unexpected changes, but assured families their students would be placed in a fitting site where their students can thrive academically and socially.

Gloria Rangel, Garfield Community School parent, addressed the School Board by expressing her frustration at the unexpected closure of the SDC classroom at Garfield Community School. Ms. Rangel urged the School Board and Superintendent Baker to find proper placement for the students affected by the closing of the classroom at Garfield Community School.

In response to Ms. Rangel's comment, Superintendent Baker stated that there was a vacancy for that specific teaching position. Superintendent Baker added that the position had been posted on EdJoin and LinkedIn. Superintendent Baker noted that Special Education is an area of need and there is a deficiency in teachers for Special Education, math, and science. Superintendent Baker added that the Redwood City School District has reverted to finding staff out of state in order to fill positions.

Superintendent Baker reiterated that the Special Education Department is working closely with families to ensure a smooth transition for students.
